

First Vice President Report

Fall 2018

The past three years have flown by. It has been a great pleasure serving as 1st VP under President White. He has fostered efficient communications among the executive positions. The online meetings have greatly improved our ability to get things done. I very much look forward to continuing this trend in the next three years.

Respectfully submitted,

Jody Nolin