

Bulletin Editor's report

Greetings to all. Cathy and I continue to enjoy producing IRISES and thank you for this opportunity. We are always in need of more material, so don't hesitate to suggest stories.

A few years ago we talked about looking into a new printing company, even though we are happy with Sundance. I have collected and forwarded on a few quotes and will continue to do so as inquiries arise.

Thank you to everyone who proofs, sources images, and helps out in general. We appreciate it.

The next four deadlines are:

June 10

Sept. 10

Dec 15

March 10

Like everyone, we are sad to miss the convention and hope to see you all soon!

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Milliman
