

American Iris Society Publications Committee Report

October 2009

Projects in Progress

- Hybridizers manual – possible publication 2012
- Compendium of Bulletin articles on hybridizing
 - Will be seeking writers to provide context for each chapter
 - May be ready for review at Fall 2010 board meeting

Projects Delayed

A call for volunteers and new committee members will be made in the AIS bulletin and Iris Talk

- The following projects will be launched once volunteers are identified
 - Centennial publication
 - Chronicles
 - Ben Hager
 - Others

Clarence Mahan is resigning from the Committee. Betty Roberts will be resigning from the Committee after her submission of the organization of bulletin articles on hybridizing into chapters. I would like to express my appreciation for their participation in the publications committee.

Question

The board minutes show a motion that AIS would purchase 3 boxes of the Gardener's Dream. George is prepared to send another box in time for Christmas sales. Do we proceed?

Respectfully submitted,

Publications Committee
