

Breaking News

AIS is NOW the top rated plant society web site for the last 30 days.

- While gardening sites and plant societies are showing declines for the fall season
AIS site is now growing passing the other plant societies now that the Iris Encyclopedia is up for 70 days.
- Links to sections on the Encyclopedia appear to be sending visitors to those sites
 - People are spending time looking as indicated by pages viewed per visit
 - Now that we have their attention can we get people to join?
