

CALENDAR
Spring 2013
Janet Smith

The 2014 Calendar has been printed and is now in the hands of the Storefront. John Ludi can report on how sales are going. Otherwise, there is nothing to report other than I have been asked to work on the 2015 Calendar and that will be done later this year for John Ludi to have approval at the November meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet Smith
Calendar Coordinator
