

Calendar Coordinator
Fall 2017
Janet Smith

The 2018 calendars were printed and John Ludi can report on how many calendars are left for sale. The pre-order sale offer was successful once again.

The new guidelines, which the Board of Directors approved earlier this year, are working out very well. Chad Harris, John Ludi and John Jones are on the committee with me and their input is most appreciated.

The 2019 calendar is ready to go to press once the board decides on how many to be printed.

Respectfully submitted,
Janet Smith, Editor
