

III. Officers F. Managing Editor, Jim Morris
AIS Board Meeting Des Moines, IA, May 23, 2017

The spring 2017 issue of IRISES The Bulletin of the American Iris Society, was my last as we eased editor Jane Milliman into her full time assignment. Thus I finished five issues as official managing editor and several previously in an acting role.

We continue to be impressed by and pleased with Sundance Press as our IRISES publisher. They have been most helpful and speedy in the printing process.

I would like to publicly thank Dave and Debra Miller, Judy Nunn, Dorothy Stiefel and Judy Keisling for their assistance in proofing past issues of IRISES. It is most helpful to have extra “eyes” look at Bulletin copy.

I will continue as Obituaries editor. We receive several requests each quarter for past member obits – so much so that I printed our obit policy in the spring 2017 issue.

As always the content and quality of IRISES depends largely upon our contributing writers and photographers. So please keep those stories and photos coming to our editor. Thank you.

Jim Morris
